This is the salvation army store and they used to have a clothing drop in the rear of the property. They removed the drop box but people are still throwing clothes and other types of debris in the rear of the property. They are trashing the property and it needs to be cleaned up.

Comments

There is an infestation of pigeons in the roof overhang of the Salvation Army at 22nd and Market (22nd street side). Because of the pigeon rookery there is an accumulation of pigeon droppings on the sidewalk. Pigeon droppings of course are a major source of psiticosis.
